Executive Training for Young Leaders, Ages 10-16

We're looking for the top 10-25% young influencers on the Monterey Peninsula, to give them a 10-20 year head start in their leadership development. Help us find them. Recommend this program to parents, teachers, coaches, children and youth workers. They'll receive the finest training available along with mentoring by local and national leaders and projects assisting our community.

Spring training module: Mondays, April 5-May 24, 6:45-8:15PM
Summer Camps Running June 21-25 & July 19-23 (1/2 day)

Includes 12-hours of executive caliber, active learning training. Participants receive a notebook, materials, t-shirt, and certificate. Parents receive a 180-page book and 3 hours of training. Eight students in our first group gathered  $\frac{3}{4}$  ton of food for the Salvation Army center in Sand City. Our winter group is raising funds for kids in the Haitian earthquake disaster.

Cost for this program is $250. Scholarships are available. Contact KidLead for more info. Apply online along with 2 Social Influence Surveys (only 1 by a parent). Deadline: Mar. 25.

This is a national program, locally based. Why wouldn't you take advantage of America's finest young leader training program right in your own back yard? Program supervised by Dr. Alan E. Nelson, leadership development specialist who lives on the peninsula. KidLead advisory board includes national leadership expert and NY Times bestselling author: Dr. John C. Maxwell.
